

To all whom these presents shall come, Greetings:
This is to certify that

The Honorable Craig Olive

is hereby appointed this date as

Honorary Keeper of the Constitution

To and for the State of North Carolina and for the People of Johnston County in recognition of the Honorable Craig Olive's continuing visionary public service as Johnston County Register of Deeds.

Of particular merit, Register of Deeds Olive has strived to modernize how public records and filings are kept in a way that secures them at the highest levels of historical safety while also making them far more accessible to the public for its use as electronically accessible documents.

This continuing effort has made the Johnston County Register of Deeds Office a model in North Carolina of how public records can be kept for the maximum use by both citizens and businesses.

In Witness Wherefore, I have caused these letters to be made patent and the Seal of the Department of the Secretary of State to be hereunto affixed.

Presented, this 11th day of February, in the Year of our Lord Two Thousand and Ten.

Elaine F. Marshall
Elaine F. Marshall
Secretary of State